

Homework Week 11:

1. Brainstorm a list of factors that might affect the development of an infant
2. For each factor, identify the area of human development concerned and the way it could impact on an infant's growth